

NITK's annual technical fest takes off with 'Enchanted Cosmos' theme

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Mangaluru

THE National Institute of Technology Karnataka (NITK) Surathkal launched its highly anticipated annual technical festival, 'The Engineer 2024', on Thursday. This year's theme, 'Enchanted Cosmos', aims to inspire innovation, curiosity and exploration of the vast universe.

This three-day extravaganza promises to attract over 25,000 visitors and features more than 30 events across various technical domains, including Hackathon, Auto Expo, Gaming Events, Technights Projects, Robocons Expo, Tronix Expo, Drone Racing, Virtual Sky Tour, Engi Talks, ACM VR Expo, Tech Mela, and Pro Show and many more.

Shilpa R, managing director of the Hutti Gold Mines Co Ltd, graced the occasion as the chief guest and Prakash, executive director of the Hutti Gold Mines Co Ltd, was the guest of honour. NITK deputy director Prof Subhash C Yargal presided over the ceremony, accompanied by Prof A C Hegde, Dean Students Welfare, Dr S B Arya, Professor in-charge Engineer and Technical Clubs, and Team Incident.

Dignitaries during the inauguration of the annual technical festival, 'The Engineer 2024', at NITK on Thursday | EXPRESS

About Engineer

A press release stated that 'The Engineer' has consistently provided a launchpad for innovative ideas, startup successes and industry-academia collaborations. Its impact extends beyond the festival, inspiring a community of young innovators and thought leaders shaping the future of technology.