(57) Abstract :

According to an aspect of the present disclosure, a dedicated portable device to indicate the change in price of cryptocurrency comprises a dedicated controller embedded with a WIFI module, a LCD display, plurality of RED and GREEN Light Emitting Diode/LED indicators, a buzzer and push buttons. TheWi-Fi enabled dedicated portable device indicates the change in price of Cryptocurrency and provide the updates on selected cryptocurrencies. Further, the dedicated portable device tracks the changes in prices of selected cryptocurrencies and helps the user/investor to take timely decisions by providing an alarm indication to the user through visual inspection and audio intervention whenever the absolute percentage change in the price is more than the selected threshold value in the selected time duration.
